

1

Colin Hallahan

Old Lyme Firehouse | 69 Lyme Street

Make Music welcomes back Old Lyme's own Colin Hallahan! Stop by the firehouse to enjoy Colin's popular renditions of covers and his originals. Go to ColinHallahan.com and stream his latest release "Yoga Mat."

2

Braiden Sunshine

Nightingale's Acoustic Cafe | 68 Lyme Street

Braiden Sunshine brings to the stage everything from modern pop and rock to 40's music with his own soulful twist.

Check out "Live Again" on BraidenSunshine.com. A finalist on The Voice, Braiden has a national following.

3

Rodney Brown Two of Us

Patricia Spratt for the Home | 60 Lyme Street

Playing from his musical roots, Rodney Brown will perform traditional American folk and folk rock, sea songs, Celtic music, original songs with some fun and silly songs along the way. The genre-bending fun that the Two of Us brings to the stage provides ukulele stylings and close harmonies on pop and rock hits from the 20s to the 20s. Follow them on Facebook.

4

Barbara Harvey Jack Hardesty

Lymes' Youth Service Bureau | 59 Lyme Street

Since a teenager, Barbara Harvey has been playing guitar and singing – she's always been influenced by folk and contemporary folk music. She'll be playing covers that have inspired her over the years. "Texas Jack" Hardesty's music is a blend of Americana originals, hand-picked oldies and tunes from his music career over the last 40 years.

5

Chris Gregor

Center School Lawn | 49 Lyme Street

Award-winning Chris Gregor performed at our first Make Music Old Lyme, and he's back again with an upbeat mix of popular covers and originals with soaring vocals that makes him a Make Music Day fan favorite.

6

Kelly Riley

Memorial Town Hall | 52 Lyme Street

Kelly Riley is a Nashville based, award-winning songwriter, and an accomplished singer, multi-instrumentalist, touring performer, and recording artist. She has opened for Willie Nelson, Steve Miller Band, and Lyle Lovett. Find her at KellyRiley.net.

7

John Charland

Law Offices | 44 Lyme Street

John Charland has been covering early roots and blues music for well over 50 years. Expect Delta, Rag and Piedmont finger picking styles with a side helping of contemporary country blues!

8

Band of Friends

Library Patio | 2 Library Lane

Nightingale's Pickin' Party fave Steve Patarini and his Band of Friends are back sharing their great acoustic performances. Catch these friends at Nightingale's Acoustic Cafe.

9

The Scoville Unit Jazz Duo

Former ice cream shop | 34 Lyme Street

Guitarists Tim Lewis and Rich McSweeney present to Make Music the Scoville Unit Jazz Duo. They'll be performing jazz standards from the classic American songbook. You can find Tim's music on ReverbNation.com/thescovilleunitjazz.

10

Paul Loether

Residence | 32 Lyme Street

Paul Loether expressive vocals and fingerpicking style cover a wide array of traditional and contemporary folk artists—from Stephen Foster, Woody Guthrie, Pete Seeger, and Tom Paxton, to Bill Staines, Nanci Griffith, and Townes Van Zandt. His usually topical originals feature clever, well-crafted, and often humorous lyrics. Find him on YouTube @paul18639

11

Howling Hound Dogs

The Cooley Gallery | 25 Lyme Street

The Howling Hound Dogs are an acoustic roots washboard trio and their toe-tappin', hand-clappin', finger-snappin' shows have thrilled audiences throughout New England. Find them at HowlingHoundDogs.com

12

The Celestials

Village Shoppes | 16 Lyme Street

The Celestials are a CT and NYC-based group playing astral folk rock — with soaring harmonies, folk groove, and incisive lyrics. Guitarist and songwriter Clare Byrne, with band members Amy Larimer on vocals and Nicholas Leichter on keys, bring to the stage songs both soulful and theatrical. Find more of their music at clarebyrne.bandcamp.com.

13

Old Lyme Town Band

First Congregational Church | 2 Lyme Street

5:30 pm start time. The Old Lyme Town Band embraces the history and the heritage of the American Community Band which first began in Old Lyme in 1886. Members of all ages bring audiences its catalogue of over 500 pieces that includes everything from John Williams' "Star Wars Theme" to Percy Grainger's "Country Gardens." OldLymeTownBand.net.

Kipp "Kid Caviar" Sturgeon

Strolling Lyme Street

Kipp Sturgeon aka "Kid Caviar", will entertain with Americana and old time jazz tunes on banjo and ukulele. He performs lately in nursing homes, restaurants, farmers markets after a 50+ year side career in lounge/wedding bands and solo, duo and trio performances. You can check him out on his Facebook page, Kipp's Music.

During the Music Stroll from 5pm-7pm, be sure to check out....

Refreshments & Family Fun

- Sunny Train Concert @ LYSB 4pm-5pm
- Grill Items by the Lyme-Old Lyme Lions Club: Center School @ 49 Lyme Street
- Ice Cream at Nightingale's Acoustic Cafe @ 68 Lyme Street
- Sweet Treats at The Chocolate Shell @ 16B Lyme Street
- Musical Fun for the Kids at Old Lyme Historical Society @ 55 Lyme Street
- End the evening with Sarah Mac @ Nightingales, 7pm (ticketed performance)

Thank you...

...to you, for coming out this evening and supporting all of the great musical talent.

...to the musicians who provided free entertainment in a very busy season. Please check out their future performances on their websites and social media.

...to the organizations, businesses, and residents who hosted our musicians tonight, staffed their buildings, and met electrical and other needs.

...to the folks at Music Now Foundation/Nightingale's Acoustic Cafe and LYSB for organizing tonight's great line up!

... to the Cultural Coalition for their leadership in today's regional Make Music event.

...A Very Special Thanks to our Event Sponsors: Pasta Vita, Essex Savings Bank/Essex Financial Services, Herb Chambers Charitable Foundation, Bluewater Millwork & Construction, and Mercer Advisors/Benchmark Wealth Management and to our media sponsor Shoreline Web News LLC (Lymeline).

Please support all of the businesses and organizations that contributed to this evening's success!

Post your photos #MakeMusicDayOldLyme and tag @oldlymeartsdistrict

You Can Also Follow the Stroll On Your Mobile Device!

Make Music Old Lyme is generously supported by Connecticut's Eastern Regional Tourism District.

MAKE MUSIC

Old Lyme Stroll

Guide to Performances

Saturday, June 21, 2025
Sunny Train @ LYSB 4pm-5pm
Stroll on Lyme Street @ 5pm-7pm
Sarah Mac @7pm

ExploreOldLyme.com/ArtsDistrict